all only a hard scramble among the boys as to which side would get in the most tickets. There is no way of de-nominating the two tickets that were in the field except that one of them was red and the other one yellow. The red ticket was nominated Thursday night and the yellow ticket Friday Most of the people on the red ticket were on the yellow ticket also and they fought against themselves with a vengeance that was perspiring. Take for instance Paul Brown. Paul was a delegate on the yellow ticket and worked like a beaver against himself all day. He succeeded in heating himto the public for so generously pushing February's sales away and beyond those of a year ago. Time was when February was counted a dull month with this store. That was years ago. Times are different now: there are no duil days at Hendersons. Interest never flags, and daily visits are necessary now for the woman who would keep thoroughly posted on the new things for spring. None of the fashion centers of the world have secrets from us. And what we learn and what we gather-all is for Wichita shoppers, resident or visiting, and that coupled with our low cash selling prices is the secret why dullness is banished here.

Day after day new goods come pouring in, but only a forehint. Today the buyer leaves for New York, where bargains and new novelties will be picked out and come rolling in faster than ever.
